$6,451. MILLION OPERATING BUDGET VOTED MATTAPOISETT ANNUAL TOWN MEETING

by VIRGINIA MORGAN

The May 2nd and 3rd annual town meetings held at Old Rochester Regional High School lasted until 11 p.m. each night with 305 voters attending on Monday and 215 on Tuesday. The meeting will continue May 9th and 10th (if needed) to complete the 16 remaining articles.

On Monday, the town operating budget was approved at $6,451,032.27 with the sum of $625,807.60 voted as an override for the first time since Proposition 2½ has been in effect. It was pointed out by Finance Committee Chairman Richard Gamache that this override and all subsequent overrides would have to be voted again at a Special Election, to be held some time in June, to become effective.

The town budget includes not only a five percent across the board increase, but a second five percent increase to bring the salaries of town employees up to the present market scale. This second increase represents $58,000 or 11 cents on the tax rate, explained Chairman Gamache. He added that the town budget also represented an additional $90,000 for the Board of Health to comply with state DEQE regulations at the sanitary landfill. Actually, said Chairman Gamache, the budget is down 24 percent from last year. If voters approve all the recommendations the tax rate will increase by 18 to 20 percent. "We are basing our figure on a base of $530 million when the last tax bill went out."

Moderator William Blasdale commented that in his seven years as moderator, he has never seen such a complex warrant. "The preparation of this warrant has been a team effort, with special reference to the Finance Committee." The meeting opened with the Invocation given by the Rev. Raymond D. Patch of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church, followed by a moment of silence for departed town meeting members.

Chairman Gamache explained the new positions being sought are due to the town's growth: those of Town Planner, Council on Aging Director and Guidance Counselor at Old Rochester High School, all of which were approved. A Personnel By-Law change was voted to read: "Permanent part-time employees must work 20 hours per week or more."

Excluding the town budget override, other articles voted for the 2½ overrides were:

Article 6 - Council on Aging Director, $7,000.

Article 12, Two Police Cruisers, $23,500.

In reply to a question why we go through the cruisers so fast, Police Chief James F. Moran explained they operate 24 hours a day, 7,000 miles per month, and repairs in the second year get too costly.

Article 16, Painting Center and Old Hammondtown Schools, $20,000.

Article 20, Town Planner, $20,000.

Article 34, Tinkham Lane, $3,500. This amount voted was amended from an original petitioners' request of $10,000 to install drainage and surface Tinkham Lane. A vote to indefinitely postpone was at first carried 80 to 75; however, petitioner Mrs. Judith Tommessen, 25 Tinkham Lane asked for a recount. A second count showed 83 for and 85 against indefinite postponement. Moderator Blasdale explained this count was very close and felt the voters should have a chance to reach a fairer vote. He explained voters could either hold a secret ballot (for which the officials were not ready and which would take one-half hour) or accept the vote and put it to a positive vote. It was voted to be amended to request $3,500 for an engineer's survey of the road and return next year with a more positive cost figure. Many comments were expressed sympathizing with the families on the road because of the conditions, but that $10,000 wouldn't go far for installing drains and paving. A hand-out prepared by the petitioners explained their problem.

With the result of the override questions, there will be a permanent increase in the levy capacity, providing additional levy capacity by increasing the levy limit by a specific amount. These and the debt exclusions and capital outlay expenditure exclusions will all have to be voted on at a special election to be held in June.

The debt exclusion passed was:

mediately, if approved at a special election, and should be completed nine months later.

A debt exclusion provides additional levy capacity by excluding certain indebtedness from the calculation of the levy limit over the life of the borrowing. The result - the annual exclusion is added to the levy limit over the life of the borrowing but does not become part of the levy limit for the purpose of calculating the levy limit in future years.

Capital Outlay Expenditure Exclusions passed include:

Article 17 - Old Hammondtown School roof, $124,800. Chairman of the Mattapoisett School Committee Maureen Best explained the 22 year-old building has been patched and will eventually need a new roof, if not passed this year.

Article 18 - Center School windows, $120,000. Chairman Best explained the 1897 building has windows where the snow comes inside; they are in terrible condition said the Chairman. This condition was also stressed by a Center School teacher. State aid can be sought for help with this cost, the chairman said.

Article 19 - Asbestos removal, both schools, $4,200. The original vote request for $40,000 to remove the asbestos was amended to use $4,200 for an asbestos assessment. Two bids came in $62. of each other and they were $29,600 over last year's appropriation. The facility will be located between the two pumping stations, about 14 feet by 20 feet and will house equipment, Nicholson said.

Article 24 - Land Acquisition, $17,000. This amount will be added to last year's vote for $13,000 for a total of $30,000 to purchase 5.62 acres. This will be for a radius property to protect the water supply at #3 well. The original purchase and sale agreement expired before the state DEQE approved the site in January 1988. The land is assessed at $10,000 and, in reply to a question on eminent domain action, Superintendent Nicholson said this would require costly legal fees and perhaps eventually a higher cost for the land.

Article 26 - Water/Sewer Department truck, $15,000. The cost was reduced from $17,000 at the Superintendent's request, to purchase a 3/4 ton truck. He explained the present nine-year old lighter truck is very rusty and will soon need brakes and other repairs, if kept. At this time water has come through the cab floor boards resulting in wet feet, he added.

Article 27 - Water/Sewer Department computer, $9,000. The superintendent explained the need for a computer to handle billing, accounts receivable and inventory control. At the present time, Old Colony Vocational handles the billing and the department's own computer will save this expense for the town. In the future, the computer will be tied into the system at the Town Hall.

Article 28 - Water Main Replacement/Whaler's Way, $24,450. This will be to replace 400 feet of water pipes and repair the road. Additional state aid will be sought. A 1987 report showed this street has a 2.1 parts per billion of a known carcinogen. Rick Mitchell of Eldorado Drive was the spokesman for the petitioners on three roads seeking pipe replacement. He explained the background of the pipes lined with a Johns-Manville product, tetrachloroethlyene, by the developer, which has since been declared a hazard. He urged people to speak to other voters to pass the article at the special election to protect the children from drinking the contaminated water. Town Counsel Donald J. Elderly. Placed by the Mattapoisett Housing Authority, Executive Director June Mendell explained the vote allows the authority to contract for construction and/or purchase units. She said plans are for 32 additional units, 20 conventional types and 12 of a congregate-type for elderly (a step between independent living and a nursing home). There will be no direct cost to the town, but the towns will be asked to waive certain fees. "We hope to purchase adjacent property to combine services with Village Court," she added.

In reply to a question on residents in Village Court who are not Mattapoisett residents, Ms. Mendell said in 1982 the Housing Authority advertised for local residents to get on a waiting list, but people were cautious. "We had to take from other areas; however, many have families in Mattapoisett. At the present time there are 50 persons on a waiting list, and we take Mattapoisett people first."

Article 14 - Land Acquisition for the Police Station was passed at the recommendation of the Selectmen. The town voted to accept a quit claim deed from Dennis Mahoney &

The easement includes 50 feet width with 10 feet from the brook and allowing 40 feet for a roadway.

Article 15 - Old Colony Equal Opportunity Grant: It was voted to accept $90,219 for fiscal 1989 to be used for direct services.

Article 21 - Betterment Assessment for Water Pipe Replacement was accepted in accordance with a state law similar to the betterment charges for sewer pipes. Placed by the Water Commissioners, Superintendent Nicholson explained this assessment would apply to new pipe replacement and not to those presently in place. Also, this assessment would not be placed on Whaler's Way, Eldorado Drive or Granada Court.

Article 25 - Systems Analysis Water Supply sought by the Water Commissioners for $34,000 on a Capital Outlay expenditure exclusion. The vote was 124/76. Superintendent Nicholson explained this comprehensive analysis would study the distribution of the water system, projection purposes, and assist the town in applying for grants.

Article 33- Drains on Oaklawn Avenue in the Brandt Beach section was voted down 72/57. The petitioners sought $10,000 to grade and install drains. Harvey Blanchette, speaking for the petitioners, said there was a lot of overflow which could contaminate wells. Peter Kortright asked if there is an environmental problem. Highway Surveyor Wesley Bowman said no, but that the wet area has a drainage problem. Following the favorable vote for Tinkham Lane, Mr. Blanchette asked for a reconsideration for a $2,500 road survey. This too was defeated.

Article 36 - Barstow Wharf Barricades. Selectmen sought $25,000 capital exclusion to place barricades on Barstow Wharf. This was indefinitely postponed. Highway Surveyor offered to place rocks on the wharf to save money.

Article 9, seeking a 2½ override (with no specific amount requested) for an Old Rochester Regional School District claim settlement was tabled at the school's request.

Article 35 - Acceptance of Abby Lane was also tabled at the petitioners' request, as this road does not meet specifications for acceptance at this time.

Article 2 set salaries for elected town officials, with Moderator Blasdale receiving an annual salary of $139. This job certainly needs a sense of humor to conduct these lengthy sessions and Mr. Blasdale displayed a keen sense of humor during the two nights. Accused of conducting a physical fitness program by asking continually for raised hands versus a voice vote, Moderator Blasdale explained raised hands were needed for a money vote.

The $20,000 override approved to hire a Town Planner with the assistance of Southeastern Regional Planning and Economic Development District (SRPEDD) was placed by the Growth Management Steering Committee.

Peter Kortright, the committee's chairman, explained the town is under no obligation to continue the job in succeeding years, but that it will have to be passed by voters each year. Handouts were distributed explaining the town's need for a planner and the cost effect it would have on the tax rate. In the first year, the total cost of $42,500 will be offset by a $22,500 State Incentive Aid Grant. In fiscal 1990, the town's share will be $27,000; fiscal year 1991, $36,729; and fiscal 1992, the town will assume the total cost of $47,149, if approved at that time.

The need for a planner was urged by spokespersons for the Planning Board, Board of Health, Affordable Housing Committee and the Selectmen, as well as an interested citizen.

A very informed speaker, Roger Thompson, son-in-law of the late Enoch Winslow, expressed his opinion of the town's need for a planner. He noted he was not interested in the job, although he has held positions in New York State for the government. He feels the impact of a large development on Park Street had all the attractiveness of a Ramada Inn. "The town is vulnerable; we should think this through carefully, and the first step should be a Town Planner. We can develop tastefully, without going roughshod over people. We better get a planner or wake up one morning to find a 'for sale' sign up and lose your way of life," Mr. Thompson commented.

Moderator Blasdale announced there was a collection box in the hall to

Letter to the Selectmen

The following is a copy of a letter sent to the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen, dated May 3rd.

We have read much in the papers of late about the good fortune of those who propose to put 100 condominiums and a 200 car parking structure on Park Street.

All of us can understand the desire of the landowners to make a million dollars and the desire of the developer to make even more. From their point of view it makes good sense to impose as great a density as possible on the sixteen acre tract.

But for the residents of Park and adjoining streets in particular, the proposal would inflict the impact equivalent of a Ramada Inn on a neighborhood of single family homes purchased and maintained in good faith of living within the protection of a rural-residential zone.

For the Town of Mattapoisett in general, the precedent established would be the first step down a road with severe implications and from which it will be difficult, if not impossible, to turn back.

Consider first the particular effects:

The urban density development is proposed for a narrow street of single family suburban homes with no sewage and located on an area adjacent to or including a perced water table. Assuming a modest 2.8 to 3 persons per unit, that's 280 to 300 more people (more than triple the existing population of Park Street) and their cars on a road already strained by commuter traffic. Can anyone suppose that there will not be a demand for the road to be widened? Where will that land come from? Presumably from the front yards of those who live along the road.

A portion of the land is swampy and the storm run-off on Park Street is already over-capacity in a heavy rain. Additional capacity will be required, as well as a place to run a sewer. Presumably the cost of all this will appear at some future override meeting.

A still greater concern stems from the nature of the development itself. Condominums are not noted for stability of ownership. It is probable that some sort of ownership covenant would be drawn up. Would that covenant exclude the possibility of time sharing?

Time sharing means that an owner could sell the rights to a condo for a week or more to whomever he or she wanted as often as possible at a very profitable fee. This helps defray the cost of the condominium. It also attracts a clientele who have no interest in the town save for exploiting it for recreation during their brief stay.

If you like Hyannis in the summer, you'll love Mattapoisett with condos.

And even if time sharing is excluded from Home Owners' covenant, what would happen should money tighten up and people begin to find that these inflated prices or the monthly payments are a bit much to bear? Could we expect a bank as mortgage holder not to try to recoup its money by time-sharing?

Property owners affected by this proposed development are entitled to more protection than the honeyed words of those who stand to profit by the development.

Now, lest the good people of Mattapoisett think the bell tolls only for Park Street, let's consider the general impact on the Town we want to live in.

Let us be clear here on the issue. The issue is not low income housing. The issues are the mode of supplying it and the voiding of zoning restrictions. If our rural residential zone is meaningless, what zoning in town is meaningful?

This matter comes at a critical time for Mattapoisett. The Town has no Planner and no master plan for development. The Town is vulnerable.

It still has a significant amount of open space at a time when the demand for coastal vacation property is horrendous and land values have rocketed into the stratosphere.

If a precedent is established by this development, the financial inducements to those who own open land to sell to high density developers will not be easily stayed. A cascade of high density development can very easily begin. We had better be very cautious in taking that first step.

It would be prudent to call a temporary moratorium on such high density development until the impact is more fully understood.

On an issue of this magnitude, a full town meeting is certainly in order. The residents of Park Street and the Town residents deserve at least that much. This matter is too important to be left to uncoordinated committee and board meetings.

Our family owns a sizeable acreage in Park Street. Probably we would benefit from inflated land values. But there is more at stake here than big bucks. There is quality of life.

Where in the final analysis can one go to enjoy what we have in small town life if the population densities of the cities and their attendant problems follow us even here? If Mattapoisett is not worth taking a stand for it will do little good to move to Florida.

We can provide low income housing. The sixteen acres on Park Street can be appropriately developed according to existing zoning strictures. It can be done without posting a sign which says "FOR SALE - A Small Town and A Way of Life".

one is invited. Part of the agreement with the original charge to the trustees from the Faunce family was that a church service be held in the old Meeting House twice a year. These services are held in the spring and the fall and this time it is being done in conjunction with the Open House.

Have you ever watched a scrimshander up close? You will have an opportunity to do so at the Open House. Two very talented scrimshaw artists will be exhibiting their talents. You will also have an opportunity to talk with "experts" about these exhibits at the Museum - ice cutting, "Axe-handle" Bolles' ingenious axe-handle-making machine, the Salt Works model, the loom and other exhibits in the Carriage House. Gladys Ellis will be there to talk about our basket collection, and George Avila and Louise Potter will answer your questions about the china and glass collection. Have you ever looked through a stereopticon? This was our grandparents' TV/slide show/movie substitute. You will have a chance to use one of these early entertainment centers.

These are just some of the exhibits that will be manned that day. In addition, our crew of bakers will have been busy to provide enticing refreshments.

So, do plan to come and bring along friends. Come to the Ecumenical Service, or join us later for the Open House.

on May 27th and 28th, Friday and Saturday evenings, at 7:30 p.m., and a Saturday matinee at 2:30. O.R.R.H.S. is in Mattapoisett on Route 6. Tickets are $4.00 for the general admission and $3.00 for senior citizens and students.

This rock musical of the 70s is a historical musical fantasy that centers around the son of Emperor Charlemagne of France about 850 A.D. The warm, funny musical includes "Magic to Do", "Corner of the Sky", and a rousing score by the composer of the musical "Godspell".

Michael Jackson stars as Pippin, Tom Peccini as the Leading Player, J.J. Mattson at Katherine, Janet Adams as Berthe, Kelda Nelson as Theodora, Jimmy Bardsley as Lewis, and Stacie Charbonneau as Fastrada in this wild and witty musical about a young man's search for fulfillment, instead of the fame and fortune that already awaits him.

Will we have two pick-ups - one for approved rubbish for Rochester and one for hazardous stuff? Where will the town pile their hazardous loads of nailpolish, paint cans, etc., then hire a hazardous licensed hauler to get rid of it?

A smart politician can run on a platform not to increase taxes - just entrancingly enhance fees - a fee for drugstores to allow storing hazardous material, licenses for handling the materials, license fees for paint stores, garden shops based on storing and stock turnover on such materials, a special hauler's license for a woman to transport or carry hazardous materials; i.e. lipstick.

Glass Museum plates from 1976 to 1985 will be represented in the sale. The NBGM was one of the first institutions to join the cup plate revival of the 1970s and has produced two limited editions, original Pairpoint plates annually since 1976; a Christmas Cup Plate (tm) and an annual commemorative. Most early New Bedford designs are rare or scarce in the collecting market.

The stock of cup plates now offered comes from duplicate plates which have been donated to the Museum's collection over the years, and from Museum stocks which had been held in reserve for conservation.

"After eleven years of scrupulously avoiding Museum involvement in the secondary market, " states Museum Director Janies Chester Young, "we now find ourselves with an excess of cup plates for our interpretive or preservation needs. A permanent collection of glass Museum plates has been created, with all variations represented, and to retain more plates than we need would both strain our storage and deprive private collectors."

In anticipation of the sale's reception, the Board of Trustees

Friends of Wholism

MAY BRUNCH

Friends of Wholism is an organization that networks and celebrates human potential. Each month Friends of Wholism offers a program designed to introduce a topic of interest to the community. On Sunday, May 15th, the speaker will be Loretta LaRoche giving a lively session on Humor, Laughter, and Healing. The location for this event is Nemasket Gallery, 56 Bridge Street, Fairhaven. The program begins at 10 a.m., followed by a catered brunch at 11:30 a.m. Call 993-1151 to make reservations. The cost is $5.

When your alarm clock rings at 7:00 Monday morning, do you groan and wish it were Friday? Does the thought of working the next five days make you roll back over and seek unconsciousness? Do you have fun only after 5 p.m.?

Well, Loretta LaRoche is out to change all that. She's on a self-appointed, one-woman mission to bring humor into the workplace. As director of Wellness Associates in Plymouth, Ms. LaRoche has made a career out of going to some of the most serious-sounding places of employment (John Hancock Insurance, Hewlett Packard, New England Life, the phone company and various hospitals) and training the workers to have fun on the job.

Her seminars have names like exploring the "Human Potential", "Laughter and Healing", and "Funny Business" (Putting Humor to Work). She also teaches Humorobics which is just what it sounds like - a fun way to exercise.

Ms. LaRoche herself is the embodiment of her ideas. Her laughter
